

RIGHTWEALTH ADVISORS, LLC

JULY 2, 2020

Item 1. Introduction.

Rightwealth Advisors, LLC is registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers and investing.

Item 2: What investment services and advice can you provide to me?

Rightwealth Advisors, LLC provides investment advisory services to retail investors. The principal services we offer are investment management, financial planning and consulting services. In providing investment management services we may also provide financial planning. In addition, we can provide financial planning and consulting services on a standalone basis. We tailor your investment management services to match the investment objectives, goals, risk parameters, financial and other information which you provide to us. We monitor the holdings and performance of your account on an ongoing basis, and your custodian will send you monthly reports regarding the performance and holdings of your account. In addition, we may provide you with our own reports during client meetings or upon request. We provide investment management services on a discretionary basis pursuant to authority granted to us in your client agreement. Pursuant to this discretionary authority we are authorized to determine which securities are bought and sold, the total amount to be bought and sold, and the costs at which transactions will be effected. However, in certain scenarios we are willing to provide investment management services on a non-discretionary basis. We do not limit the provision of investment management services or financial planning services to proprietary products. In addition, we generally do not limit the types of investments we utilize for clients, but consistently utilize individual equity securities, mutual funds, exchange traded funds, fixed income securities, unit investment trusts, private funds/illiquid investments and options and other derivative investments. We do not impose account minimums for new clients. Regardless, we reserve the right to accept or decline a potential client for any reason in our sole discretion.

For additional information, please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure, especially Item 4 Advisory Business, Item 7 Types of Clients, Item 13 Review of Accounts, and Item 16 Investment Discretion.

Questions to Ask Us:

Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?

How will you choose the investments to recommend to me?

What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 (part 1): What fees will I pay?

For investment advisory services we charge an asset based fee or a fixed fee, either of which is billed on a monthly basis. For an asset based fee, the more assets that are in a client's advisory account, the more a client will pay in fees. Therefore, we may have an incentive to encourage clients to increase the assets in his or her account. For standalone financial planning and consulting services we would charge a fixed fee in advance, based on the scope of the engagement.

In addition to our fees you will be responsible for other fees and expenses, such as, transaction charges and fees/expenses charged by any custodian of your account, subadvisor, mutual fund, exchange traded fund, separate account manager and any taxes or fees required by federal or state law.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For additional information, see Item 5 Fees and Compensation of our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure.

Question to Ask Us:

Help me to understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

Item 3 (part 2): What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide to you. As an example, we receive various benefits and services from custodians that we may recommend to you. For additional information on how this conflict might affect you, please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure, specifically Item 12 Brokerage Practices.

Question to Ask Us:

How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Item 3 (part 3): How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are paid based off an agreed upon percentage of the client assets they manage. Since the firm charges an asset-based advisory services fee, the more assets you have in your account the more you will pay in fees and, therefore, the firm and the financial professional could have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. Certain of our financial professionals also serve as licensed insurance agents and/or registered representatives of unaffiliated broker-dealers. These financial professionals earn commissions and other fees on insurance and other products sold through the unaffiliated broker-dealer. While no commissions or fees are earned by these financial professionals relative to any of our client investment advisory services accounts, this could present a conflict of interest because these financial professionals in their role as a licensed insurance agent or registered representatives for the unaffiliated broker-dealer are incentivized to make recommendations based on the compensation received rather than on a client's needs. For additional information regarding our financial professionals' activities as registered representatives of an unaffiliated broker-dealer or insurance agents please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure, specifically Item 10 Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations.

As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
